

Duchess

Genesis

Klavier

The image displays a piano arrangement of the piece 'Duchess' by the band Genesis. The score is written for two staves, Treble and Bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The piece begins with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings like 'p.' (piano). The score is divided into five systems. The final system concludes with the instruction 'To Coda' and a Coda symbol (a circle with a cross), followed by a double bar line and a final chord. The word 'Klavier' is written to the left of the first system.

This musical score is written for piano and consists of seven systems of staves. Each system contains a grand staff with a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps. The second system includes the annotation "D. al Coda" above the treble staff. The third system begins with a Coda symbol (a circle with a cross) and the word "Coda" above the treble staff. The score features a variety of musical notations, including chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines. The final system concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.
