

PERFECT FIT

Words & Music by Van Morrison

♩=148

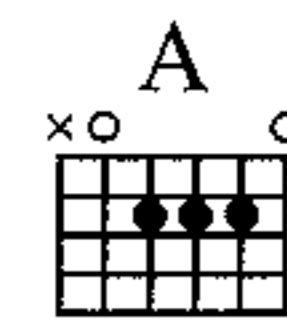

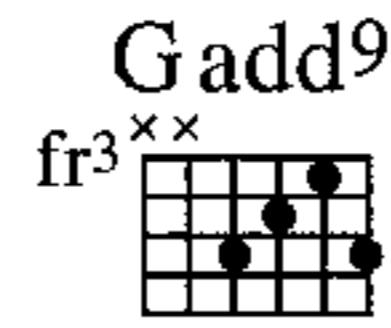

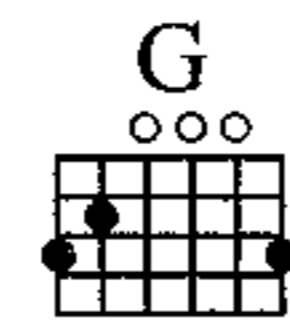

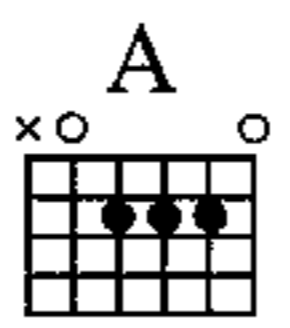

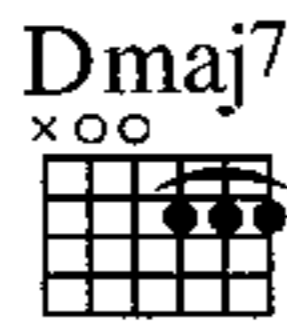

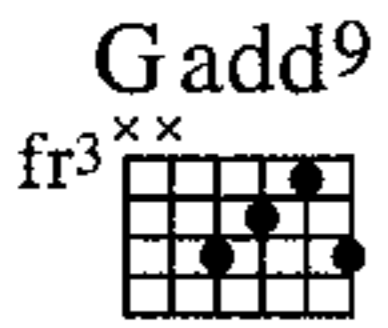

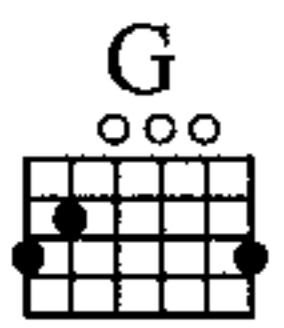

/F#

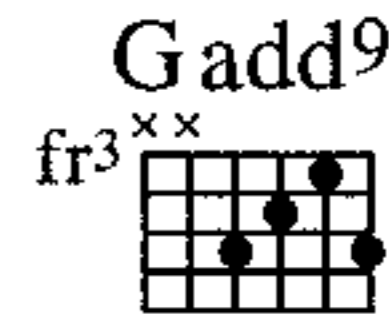

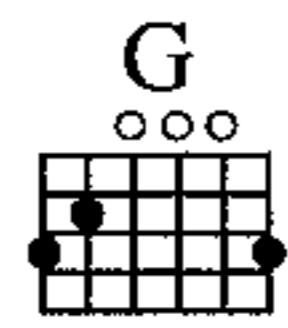

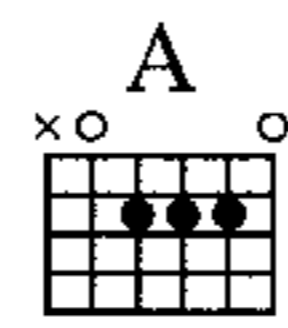

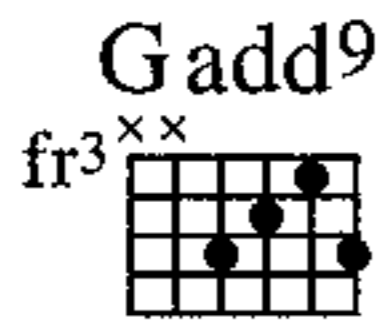

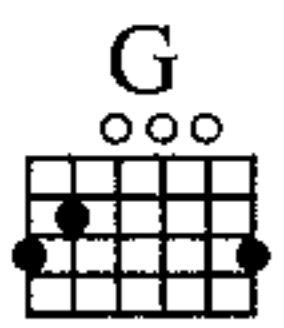

(Instrumental)

The first system of music features a guitar part on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The guitar part begins with a whole rest, followed by a quarter note G, a quarter note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C).

The second system continues the instrumental piece. The guitar part has a whole rest, followed by a quarter note G, a quarter note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment features chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C).

The third system continues the instrumental piece. The guitar part has a whole rest, followed by a quarter note G, a quarter note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment features chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C).

Verse 2:

Tell me that it's madness to want something quite like this
 But they don't understand the magic that I can't resist
 Oh and wouldn't it be so tragic if everything just went amiss
 And this could be the perfect fit.

Verse 3:

They say no one is perfect some people might take the piss
 And we say we're just friends come on, tell me what's wrong with this
 But I say keep it simple, well we haven't even started yet
 And this could be the perfect fit.

Verse 4:

See that dress you're wearing baby suits you right down to the ground
 Tell me where in the world a better loving woman can be found
 Well I've searched high and low now and from where that you and I sit
 And this could be the perfect fit.

Verse 6:

See that dress you're wearing suits you right down to the ground
 Tell me where in the world a better loving woman can be found
 Well I've searched high and low now and from where you and I sit
 Baby, this could be the perfect fit.
