Time's just a jail - er _____ for me

No one can hear me, 'cause no one is around
 But I still hear your whisper in the dark
 I know I can go, I know I can leave when ever I please
 But time is a jailer for me

I shut out the light
 Alone in the dark
 This time of night
 Is the hardest part

A face in the window, looking inside
 But no one else sees it, I know
 And now that you've found that the years have changed
 What the ending will be
 Time's just a jailer for me

I still hear the sound of your heels on the floor
 I wait for the sound of your key in the door
 But it's only the sound of nothing at all and so it must be
 That time is a jailer for me
 Time's just a jailer for me
